Honor to Parents.

God plty the young man who has brought disgrace on his father's name! God pity the young man who has broken his mother's heart! Better that he had never been born. Better if in the first hour of his life, instead of being laid ngainst the warm bosom of maternal tenderness, he had been coffined and sepulchered. There is no balm powerful enough to heal the heart of one who has brought parents to a sorrowful grave and who wanders about through the dismal cemetery rending the air and wringing the bands and crying, "Mother, mother," Oh, that today, by all the memories of the past and by all the hopes of the future, you would yield your heart to God!
